

Anti-Corruption and Bribery Policy

It is the policy of Southern Green Ltd to conduct business in an honest and ethical manner. As part of this, Southern Green takes a zero-tolerance approach to bribery and corruption, and is committed to acting professionally, fairly, and with integrity in all its business dealings and relationships, wherever it operates, and implementing and enforcing effective systems to counter bribery.

Southern Green Ltd will uphold all laws relevant to countering bribery and corruption in all the jurisdictions in which it conducts business, including, in the UK, the Bribery Act 2010, which applies to conduct both in the UK and abroad.

As a registered practice of the Landscape Institute, Southern Green provide the assurance of professional staff supported by a trusted professional body. The eleven Standards within the Landscape Institute Code of Practice are central to our profession, and define a code of practice for our professional activities. Rule 11 dictates that 'Landscape professionals must act with integrity in your relationships with clients, other professionals, the public and the Landscape Institute'. Regulation 11g(b) states "Landscape professionals must not accept bribes in the course of their professional landscape business".
